HISTORY BUFFS TAKE NOTE

The Department of History seeks to identify qualified and interested persons for a "pool" of names from which to draw when hiring part-time persons to teach survey courses in American History and/or World Civilization. The minimum requirement is a master's degree in history and some teaching experience. Special consideration will be given to those who have a knowledge of sign language, although consideration will be given to those wishing to learn it.

Persons whose resumes reach the Dept. by May 25th could be considered for part-time positions that will be available for the 1978-79 academic year.

Resumes and requests for information should be sent to, Chairperson, Dept. of History, HMB, Gallaudet College.

CONGRATULATIONS TO PAT POTTER

General Services is pleased to announce that Patricia Potter has been named Associate Personnel Manager. She, in concert with Stan Kelly, will be responsible for a variety of personnel functions including recruitment, compensation, training, benefits, personnel data system, payroll control and employee services. Pat is located in Room 4 of College Hall and can be reached at ext. 454.

ENERGY CONSERVATION TIPS FROM JIM HULL

"Energy consumption by 2020 will be 10 times greater than today if nations fail to conserve, and even if all possible methods are used, the world will consume four to five times as much power as it does now. Conclusions are drawn from a preliminary report from an international panel of experts requested by the United Nations to prepare a formal study for this year's World Energy Conference." (Buildings, April '78)

PBS PRESENTS AN EVENING ON DEAFNESS

On Saturday, May 20, PBS will present three special programs on deafness. At 8:00 p.m. they will be airing "Across the Silence Barrier", part of the NOVA series. At 9:00 p.m. "Sing a Sign" will be shown. This is a musical entertainment program interpreted into American Sign Language, which is sponsored by A.T.&T. and produced by Cara Smith, Inc., for PBS. "Sing a Sign" includes among its principals five Gallaudet people: Rita Corey, Rodney Johnson, Ogden Whitehead and Donna Gadling, with Bernard Bragg making a special guest appearance. The other principals are Vincent DiZebba and Susan Davidoff. "The Silent Minority" will be shown at 9:30 p.m. to top off this evening on deafness. All programs will be seen on Channel 26, WETA, on May 20. Be sure not to miss them.

MSSD HOSTS DANCE COMPANY

MSSD students and faculty hosted a professional dance company from New York City in April in honor of National Dance Week, April 24-30. The Joyce Trisler Danscompany taught a modern dance class for about 25 students, presented a demonstration to faculty and students and met with interested parties after their show in the MSSD Faculty Lounge.

Sam Edwards, a Gallaudet College graduate ('65) performed with the dance company and assisted Ms. Trisler with the group's demonstration. He was a week-long guest with the company and traveled to D.C. from New York with the group. Edward was a student of Peter Wisner's back in the 1960's and hopes to start a deaf dance club in New York. He is hoping to publish an article in the near future on deaf dancers.
